THE OLD MEN'S CLUB

August 1, 1916, in his 77th year, after a lingering illness. He was a native Missourian, and was born in Johnson County, January 30, 1841. For four years he served with distinction under Gen. Jo. D. Shelby. He was married twice, the wife by the second marriage and a daughter by the first, surviving; member of no church.

John W. Hamm died at Platte City, Mo., in 1916, in the 77th year of his age. He was born in Caryle, Nicholas County, Ky., February 24, 1839, and had resided in Missouri since 1843. He was under Elijah Gates, First Missouri Cavalry, Campbell's brigade. He was a lawyer by profession. In early life he was an active member of the Christian church; was never married.

As a friend, we desire to record our great respect and high regard for these old battled scarred warriors, highly esteeming them as we did.

FRANK BOWMAN,
Committee.

Memorials on the death of James C. Kelly, Rev. W. B. Cobb and T. A. Murry will be submitted at September meeting.

Here recess was taken for dinner.

On re-assembling the first order of business was the reception of new members, the names of John F. Burroughs, C. S. Byrd, Wm. W. Cunningham, Richard W. Colburn, Isaac Hulver and Daniel L. Twyman were presented, and a vote being taken they were admitted unanimously. The biography of each new member is as follows:

John F. Burroughs was born in Franklin County, Va., October 29, 1843. Came to Missouri in 1867. Served three years in the Confederate Army in Latham's battery. Wife died in 1843; member of no church; farmer; postoffice, Higginsville.

C. L. Byrd was born near Gladehill, Franklin County, Va., July 17, 1847. Was a Confederate soldier in Hughes' battalion Pickett's division, Longstreet's corps, Smith's artillery, serving thirteen months, twice married; first time in 1877, and second time in 1894; came to Missouri in 1884; member of Baptist church; brick and stone mason; postoffice, Higginsville.

Wm. W. Cunningham was born near Cynthiana, Ky., May 22, 1832; came to Missouri in 1873; served four years in the Confederate service and spent sixteen months in Federal prison; wounded four times; wife dead; member of Roman Catholic church; carpenter; post office, Higginsville.

Richard W. Colburn was born at Palestine, Cooper County, Mo., October 12, 1846; served three years in Co. G, Jo Shelby's cavalry, Franklin's company; was captured but escaped and surrendered at Shreveport, La., June 5, 1865; never married; member of Methodist church; farmer; postoffice, Higginsville.

Isaac Hulver was born near Mooresville, Va., June 18, 1840; came to Missouri in 1871; Confederate soldier in Wade Hampton's division, Ross' brigade for four years, being wounded three times, captured while scouting and spent three months in prison; wife died in 1897; seven children living; member of Lutheran church; farmer; postoffice, Lexington.

Daniel L. Twyman was born at St. Charles, Mo., July 12, 1840; Confederate soldier, company I, 8th Mo. Parson's brigade; captured in 1863; paroled but never discharged; member of Baptist church; wife died in 1913; eight children living; farmer; postoffice, Higginsville.

Eight members having died since the last meeting. Committees to prepare memorials were appointed as follows:

On the death of Michael Holwell—Rev. T. M. Cobb.

On the death of Coleman Schooler—Frank Bowman.

On the death of Ed Evers—John C. Cobb.

On the death of George H. Johns—Thomas W. Charnichael.

On the death of J. S. Grosshart—E. T. Lee.

On the death of John P. Ward—T. T. Puckett.

On death of Geo. W. Payne—Wm. L. Smith.

On the death of J. J. Warder—J. E. Rigg.

Higginsville was chosen as the place of holding the September meeting.

Under the head of remarks, appreciative and feeling talks were made by John C. Cobb, T. B. Winn, Thos. W. Carmichael and James P. Walden. In their talks Messrs Cobb and Carmichael paid beautiful and touching tributes to the memory of Joseph H. Christy, both being intimate and personal friends.

The following resolution was offered and unanimously adopted:

Resolved, that the hearty thanks of the Old Men's Club are hereby tendered for the sumptuous and enjoyable dinner served on this occasion; and we desire to tender thanks to the Lexington Elks for the use of their commodious lodge building. We greatly appreciate the kindness and hospitality so generously accorded the club.

Rev. Kennedy then closed the proceedings with prayer and the club adjourned to meet in Higginsville, Saturday, September 22, 1917.

The dinner was served at Hinesley's and, it was needless to say, the meal was a sumptuous one, consisting of the best to be had and in keeping with this popular resort, enjoying as it does a reputation second to none, both as to preparation and service.
